The Tribune has advices from San Francisco

August 18, being sixteen days later than the news ght by the steamer Panama. This intell gence was received through Mazatlan, Mexic and Vera Cruz, and reached New-York in th character; the yield of gold was stoady, ar though there was, as a matter of course, muthus far, since the beginning of the season, has been $2,000,000 per month, and there was though to be no doubt of its continuance at the same rat of abundance. No change is quoted in the pr either of gold or merchandise. The health of the population, both at the mine nd elsowhere, is generally good, and neither Cholers nor any other serious malady is reported as having made its appearance. The jealous, unfriendly feeling which has a ong been in existence between the American and South-Americans of Spanish origin, has at inst approached a crisis, and by the next arrival we may expect to hear of a grave collision, a least if the party warned off display anything like a manly spirit. The Americans have deter the mines shall no longer enjoy the privilege ligging out the riches of the earth, and have take feliberate messures accordingly. All companie of these nations who have come organized to work spend the Winter and wet season at home, have en informed that their presence will no longe be tolerated, and have received positive orders t eave the gold region and not return. The moactive and energetic part of the American ma ormed what number of persons are actually e gaged in this expulsive movement, nor how t parties would be matched in case of an attem furnishly to compel the Mexicans and Chilians evacuate; but there appears to be no doubt that the latter would have no resource but to subfair cient for the rouring parties to a fixed time, soil preparetions. The Americans seem, from our in formation, to have proceeded very calmly about i and up to the 18th no disturbances whatever has taken place; they were waiting for the expira tion of the allotted period, after which, should the rejected adventurers refuse to leave, they would set about making them. When that momen arrives there, is in the nature of the case, danger fighting and bloodshed.

itles seem to be much more quiet through the Territory than at the last dates, when the bustle of the elections had not yet ended and the excitement of parties was still fresh. Now it is comparatively stagnant. Not a word is men tioned in our advices about the proposed State Constitution, nor is the Convention so much as that the people are too intently occupied with the great business of taking out gold and getting rich to devote any great amount of thought, in the hot weather of the dog days, to anything of so fittle personal interest as public affairs in a country where the spoils of the Treasury are not so rich as those of the placers, nor so easy of access and exciting in the acquisition as those of a fare bank or a rouletta table.

The scoundrel who concocted the forego ng knew perfectly well that it was essentially lorgery and every way a gross fraud-that what is called " The Tribune Job Office " than the Herald has Judson may be a great rascal for aught we know, but we never saw anything hall se 'obscene' or 'shocking' in his paper as we have in the Herald, nor do we believe bim capa ble of a villainy so nefarious as the above paragraph embodies. If our Grand Juries would only do their duty with regard to immoral and licentions publications beginning not with the little offenders but the great ones-we know what jour nai would undergo perforce the most essential improvement.

About 4 o'clock, Friday morning a fire broke out in the frame building on Nainest, opposite the Third Presbylerian (Church, which before its progress could be arrested, consumed ten buildings on Mainest, and one on Divisionest. The wind blowing strongly from the west, and the buildings oursed, with one ox coption, being of wood, the flames swept through them with fearful rapidity, both east and west, from where the fire originated. On the west side, they were supped at the brick building 81 Mainest. Eastward, they burned to Serpell's bakery, the third building west of Clintonest. The fire was arrested there by an albey running between the bakery and the last building destroyed, and by pulling down the house on the west side of the alley.

The buildings destroyed were nearly all old, and of weed. They were occupied on the first floor by since shops, hat stores, barber shops, groceries, &c. &c.—The upper stories of nearly all of them were occupied as dwellings, and a large number of families were houseless at sunrise. There were a good many poor families, who lost part or all their furniture, who had no insurance on their effects.

The grocery stores of Charles S. Gilbert and John Worden, 87 and 80 Main at were dirst destroyed. There was an insurance on Nr. Worden's stock of $700 in the Etna Company. Mr. Gilbert was insured for $1,000 in the Hartford Company. John Ireland lost his boot and shoe shop, stock and dwelling. His loss is estimated at $4,500, upon which there is as insurance of $3,000, $1,000 on the stock, and $2,000 on the building. On a building owned by Julius T. DEAR COL. Mr. Babbitt U. S. Matt Agent, has this incoment arrived at this peet from above, and stope but 15 minutes. Capt Duncan, of the Riffes, come in yesterday from thirty miles beyond the South Fast—He was sent in pursuit of finar desertors from this command. He caught all four, and knought them back asks, with the horses and government property which they book with them. He was ordered by Maj. Sanderson, the commanding officer, to pursue them as far as the Salt Lake, and then, if he could beer of them, to pursue them as long as there were any hopes of success. The Captain gives a horrible description of things above. He says that the road is literally covered with dead cattle for some two hundred miles above the upper crossing. Many attempted to take what is called Sublitt's cut off. They started in with wagons, and many came out with packs on their backs. He thinks that the greater portion will get through to California, but very many will have to remain at the Sait Lake this Winter. He saw a Mormon, just from the Mormon City, who informed the Captain that wheat was $6 per bushed boson life, per 16, and all other provisions at corresponding prices. Gen. Wilson, and encort, was at the South Pass on the Bid of July, all well. From the regiment of mounted Rifeenen expected to be at Fort Hall on the 4th irst upward of 50 descritions had taken place up to the End of July, all well. From the road it is reported that some have taken the back track. Capt. Butcan was told by the ferryman, at the road; it is reported that some have taken the back track. Capt. Butcan was told by the ferryman, at the in every instance take the best horses, and leave the road; it is reported that some have taken the back track. Capt. Duocas was told by the ferryman, at the upper ferry, that all of Capt. Tucker's Company had deserted but six men. There is no Cholera in advance. The emigrants are generally healthy. The supply train for this Fort strived yesterday. The second train for Fort Hall arrived here this morning. The Mormon train is one hundred miles above, all well.

Maj. Sanderson will start a train down, the last of this week, with all the sick that are able to return. The Major has taken in all that have applied for assistance. It is believed that passengers and freight from Bufalo bound to Boston will take this route via the Erie Road in preference to the route by Albany and the Western Railroad. The Fishkill Road is a little shorter than the Western, and the grades are New York.
